Provence rosé has exploded onto the wine scene in recent years. We have picked out five medal winners from the 180 wines entered into the category at this year's Decanter World Wine Awards...

Provence rosé accounts for nearly 90% of the region's wine production, and is a style it has absolutely mastered – generally known for its pale colour and light, dry elegance.

Below are five of the top winners from the Decanter World Wine Awards 2017 (DWWA)

The DWWA is the world's largest wine competition, this year it received over 17,200 entries judged by 219 international wine experts, including 65 Masters of Wine and 20 Master Sommeliers.

Château la Tour de l'Évêque, Côtes de Provence, Pétale de Rose

DWVA Gold Medal: Aromas of smoked strawberry, slight lees and toast; palate nicely different, complex with a lively minerality, lees...
